[From the "Flag of '98. '] A SCHOOL-GIRL'S SOLILOQUY. Spoken at the Commencement of the Locisville

SEMINARY. I'm tired of the school-room and tired of school-I never could learn when subject to rule; 'Tis nothing but study from morning till night— Tis slates, books and pens, till I'm tired of the

All the long time it is nothing but drudge, And the teacher looks grum if a schoolmate you nudge. It is not, I find, as one might suppose, That the older one gets the wiser one grows. I never could learn, work as hard as I would, All my efforts prove vain, and do me no good. When it comes to Arithmetic, I'm there such

That I throw down my book and quit it at once For, at figures, let me try as hard as I will, I never can make anv great show of skill. Then there's my Algebra, with its minus and plus, About which so many are making a "/uss." How "X" can mean anything, I never could see, Nor understand squaring (a minus b.)
I once bought an Astronomy, and with infinite zest Determined in that to do quite my best-But the teacher looked troubled, and whispered

As I mockly stepped into a seat in the class.

The science, they told me, was learned with great

I very soon learnt the shape of the earth,
But the thought that 'twas round quite excited my mirth, For be it a ball, and we placed outside, What hinders us all from taking a slide? To this question, which very demurely I asked, The teacher replied as though she felt tasked, And thought that her labor for me had proved vain, For with me she really had taken great pain! Oh! Kitty Careless, said she, "did you never Learn what keeps the planets from knocking to gether?

'Tis gravity, dear, that great law of nature, That which causes all things to tend to a centre."
To think of my ignorance there, struck me dumb,
And for many days after I was quite "mum."

learned,
Though really about it I don't feel much concerned:
For what possible use are those horrid old dates, Which none can remember, and every one hates, Or to tell how water can be made up Of oxygen and hydrogen, shook in a cup.

Then next, a la Francais, I turned my attention, My proficiency there I'd rather not mention, I learnt however to say 'Monsieur' and 'Oui,'
And would finish my letters with "Votre ami:" I also could salute one with 'bon soir' or 'bon jour But really I think it a terrible bore. Of Latin they wished me a little to know, But my classmates pronounced me "in statu quo Why the dead languages were called from repose,

I'm sure is a fact that nobody knows. In future I'll say to all Latin classes, "Requiescant in pace," or peace to your ashes. I can sing a few songs, I know how to dance, And to acquire an air I am going to France; I am pretty and rich, and what more do I need, In the fashionable world I'll be sure to succeed-I'll not worry, though my efforts to learn are in

For I'm told in that sphere there's no need of the brain; I ne'er can learn more, and 'tis vain to deny it. So goodbye to school books, I never will try it!

BUY ONLY WHAT YOU WANT.

To buy only what you want, is a maxim as old, almost, as society itself, and at the present time is one which it would be well to bear in mind. Spending money, in fact, is a vice common to human nature. Where one man degrades himself by being a miser, ten run constant peril of ruining themselves by Edward Sangster, extravagance. It is so fine to have elegant Dr. R. H. Stabler, furniture, to live in a handsome house, or to | Christopher Neale, dress one's wife and children in rich apparel, that it requires an unusual degree of firmness

If all were compelled to pay cash for such gratifications, there would be some slight check on this tendency to useless expenditions. T. B. Robertson, V. Pres't Win. Wright, Secretary. ture-but credit is so easily obtained in this country, and buyers are so sanguine of being ready when settling day comes, that thousands of families are induced, annually, to cripple their future comforts by indulging in present follies. Half the men who reach old age impoverished, and perhaps even a larger portion owe their dependent condition to that saddest of all times, to early extravagance.

If we were to buy only what we wanted, this would not be. We are far from recommending a niggardly parsimony, for one of the purposes of wealth is that it should be distributed for the encouragement of trade and the arts. But still even the wealthiest, with few exceptions, frequently buy what they do not want, while those less favored constantly violate this golden rule. The wife, charmed by a new style of dress, lavishes her money upon it, often to the neglect of some more necessary article. The father, proud of his daughter, thinks no expense too great to gratify her whims. The young man. Robert Jamieson, fond of display, does not stop to count the cost when he rushes into useless expenditure. The fashionable couple, who like to be surrounded with mirrors, pictures, and fine furniture generally, are apt to squander money disproportionately on such costly vanities. Yet all learn, sooner or later to regret what they have done, since they add nothing to their happiness .- Orange Chron-

SUTTEE IN INDIA.—The Delhi Gazette gives details of the recent suttee near Hansec. On the 19th of June last a Choomar died, and his widow insisted on immolating herself on his pyre. The villagers, aware of the criminality of the act, tried to prevent her, but she declared she was inspired, and cursed all who should attempt to oppose her. Fearful of the curse, her neighbors proceeded to make the necessary preparations, but meanwhile sent information to the nearest police station, eight miles off. The thanadar took no steps to prevent the occurrence. Bearing a "mala" in one hand, and a cocoanut in the other, the widow, Nunno, ascended the pile at sunrise. The nearest relative of her husband applied the fire, while crowds looked on quietly. The willage has been fined 50 rupees, and the Choomars who carried the wood and the lumberdars have been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. The thanadar and the whole of the police have been dismissed by order of the Lieutenant Governor.

The Lord Mayor of London has an allowence of about £7900; it is generally cited as £8000, but it is barely so much. It is variable, even to the extent of £10,000 a year, more or less, owing to a portion of it being derived from dues on fruit. His household at the Mansion House consists of twenty gentlemen, and he has a good retinue of servants. He has to provide his own horses, and has to find a carriage and horses for the Lady Mayoress. The expenses of the Mayoralty usually exceed the allowance by about

SECURITY TO POLICY HOLDERS. THIS old and responsible Company insures against loss or damage by Fire, almost every description of property, and offers to Merchants and others desiring insurance, the security of an actual Capital of $6,298,800, for the whole of which, and for any liabilities beyond, the Shareholders are INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE, even to the extent of their entire fortunes. The Shareholders number about one thousand, and as a large portion of these are persons of great wealth, the most ample provisions exist for meeting every possible claim against the Company. SUBJECT TO THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

In appointing an Agent for the United States. the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings instituted against or by said Company, in the same manner as if the Company were a Corporation or Company established by the laws of the United States, or any of the several States."

PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF LOSSES IN THE UNITED STATES.
A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA, TO ENABLE HIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL Losses, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO LONDON.

LIBERAL TO THE INSURED. The uniform course of the Company has always een a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained. ANNUAL INCOME.

The Income of the Company is now about $1,-000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different communities in which business is done. RATE OF PREMIUM.

The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk. The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States.

All differences in settlement of losses, may be etermined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: | T. B. Robertson, WETTLEWELL'S MANIPULATED GUANO.

WE cannot present to the Agricultural community more complete and satisfactory testimony of the value of this FERTILIZER, than is contained in the following letters, from well known parties in Virginia and Maryland.

W. H. FOWLE & SON, Agents,

W. J. South Wharves

No. 4 South Wharves.

John Kettlewell, Esq.

John Kettlewell, Esq.

Dear Sir;—I promised to give you a candid statement of the result of the use of your Manipulated Guano on my crops of this year. The result of the wheat harvest in Eastern Virginia, as you know, was anything but satisfactory. I think it due to you, however, to state, that my crops were quite as good, I might perhaps say, with truth, better, than those of my neighbors. I used your Guano principally, and in small quantities, in various ways. I am satisfied that the yield of grain was quite as large, indeed larger than from many fields in the neighborhood drossed with Peruvian Guano. The season was very unfavorable for fertilizers, and probably most so for Peruvian Guano, which forced the wheat forward, and caused it to encounter the early rust.

which forced the wheat forward, and caused it to encounte
the early rust.

I may say, however, that I am satisfied with your Guano, and shall send your large order fin a few days. Having visited your works, and witnessed the manipulating process, and had from you full and caudid explanations of the whole business, I am satisfied, not only of the theroughness, but of the entire farmess of the operation. Under this impression, I take pleasure in recommending your enterprize to the patronage of my brother farmers. Yours, truly, WILLOUGHBY NEWTON.

Paisce George's, August 25, 1859.

John Kerthewell, 1891.

Dear, Sir;—I received your note some time since, asking a word from me in reference to your Manipulated Guano.

Thave to say, that I have used it upon wheat, outs, and tobacco, somewhat extensively, and in all cases am satisfied with the result, and shall use it so long as I obtain the same good results. I have not experimented with it, as compared with other Guano that I have used, but am better pleased with the results of yours than any other that I have used. My wheat and outs, where it was applied, ripened beautifully. The last sowing (with your Guano) was harvested fully. The last sowing (with your Guano) was harvested before the early without Guano—the straw light and grain full. The tobacco ahead of that alongside on better land. The tobacco areas.
Respectfully yours,

WEST RIVER, July 24, 1859. John Kettlewell, esq. Dear Sir;—The effect of the Manipulated Guano, No. 1, (procured from you) on tobacco, has been so marvellous, that I consider it my duty to voluntarily furnish you with that I consider if my duty to voluntarily turns if you will be statement.

I bought last Spring only 1½ tons of it, to apply to a few knells in an otherwise rich field—capable, in good seasons of presidening 30 bushels of wheat, or, on subdie, 1000 Be, of tobacco, per acre. There were, however, a few spots su psor, that I felt convinced they would not pay for the labor of cultivation without being enriched. I therefore applied to them about 300 Be, of your mixed Guanos to the acre, broadcast, and plowed it before laying off. The plants in these spots stood remarkably well, and seemed to grow off almost immediately after being set, and have continued, up these spots stood remarkably well, and seemed to grow off almost immediately after being set, and have continued, up to this time, fire alread of all other portions of the crop. So marked is their superiority, that the eye at once traces the extent of the application of the fertilizer; and it would be worth your while to come down and see for yourself. I am satisfied that I should have profited by a similar application to the entire field, especially as, from former experience. I have a right to auticipate a most beneficial result from its use on the successing crops of wheat and clover. Respectfully, your obscient servant.

GEOEGE W. HUGHES.

ROCKVILLE, August 25, 1859. Mr. John Kettlewell.

Sit:—I purchased of you's quantity of your "Manipulated Guano" last Fall, for my wheat crep, and drilled in one of my fields 100 pointeds to the acre, and I think I have made 30 bushels of wheat to the acre. I used through the centre
